Dr. Yegor Gaidar

I want to thank you for meeting with our "delegation" during our visit to Moscow last week. Our discussion with you was one of the most valuable of the week.

At the meeting, I offered to send a letter in Russian outlining our interest in identifying a bank or banks that may become partners for asset management and other lines of business in Russia. I hope to send that within the week.

I am attaching a trip summary that I prepared for our investors before leaving Moscow. It is distributed on a confidential basis to investors.

We are of course continuing to monitor the political and financial climate very closely, and would be grateful to receive any reports or comments that you think might be helpful in understanding current trends.

Again, my thanks and I look forward to cooperation with you on projects of mutual interest in the near future.

Regards,

Steven E. Halliwell
